

Do you make long distance telephone calls? If so, Uncle Sam probably owes you money.

Do you use a home phone, cell phone, or Internet phone service to make long distance calls?	Yes	No
Did you pay for this service billed between March 1, 2003 and July 31, 2006?	Yes	No

If you answered Yes to both questions, you can request the Telephone Excise Tax Refund.

If you request the standard amount, that's $30 - $60 in your pocket! If you paid more than the standard amount, you can figure your refund using the actual amount of tax paid.

How to get your refund

Do you normally file a tax return every year?

Yes Request your refund on the following 2006 tax returns:

- Line 71 of Form 1040
- Line 69 of Form 1040NR
- Line 42 on Form 1040A
- Line 21 of Form 1040NR-EZ
- Line 9 on Form 1040EZ

No Request your refund on Form 1040EZ-T.

This special form was designed for people who do not need to file a tax return.

To figure your refund using the actual amount of tax paid, you need your phone bills or other records. Then, fill out Form 8913 and attach it to your tax return.
